Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1950, take great pleasure in dedicating this annual, The 1950 Chieftain, to our parents and teachers who have guided us down the pathway of life to the crossroads of graduation. As each of us goes his separate way, their patience, devotion, and understanding will always serve to inspire our lives.

Together with other members of the Young Women's Christian Association we declare our purpose to be:

To build a fellowship of women and girls
Devoted to the task
Of realizing in our common life
Those ideals of personal and social living
To which we are committed
By our faith as Christians
In this endeavor.
We seek to understand Jesus
To share his love for all people
And to grow
In the knowledge and love of God.

Chiefs Win Rawl With Preston 19-0

The Kiowa Chieftains racked up their fifth win against two in the 1949 season by shellacking Preston high 19 to 0 a week Wednesday night at Ellis Field. At the same time the Attica football squad held a favored team to a 13-13 tie. The league leading Bluejays of Cherokee probably rejoiced at the result. Even if they do lose to Kiowa, which is improbable, they are the championship bunters. The Attica game is the SKL game on the Blue

Ability to convert the points after touchdowns gave the Kiowa Chieftains their 14 to 13 victory over a scrappy Attica eleven last Friday night at the Attica field.

Fumbles cost the Attica team two possible scores as deceptive reverses and power plays put the ball deep into Kiowa territory. The fumble was on Kiowa's 15, the other on the 17.

The first quarter was all Attica's. They had fire and drive enough for two teams. After the first few Attica plays against a sluggish Kiowa team which had to punt out of danger twice, Kiowa rooters thought the game was lost. For all its fired up ability, though, the Attica team couldn't

CLASS POEM

Life on earth is a highway
That we travel throughout the years.
Joy awaits us just over the hill;
In the valleys there're hopes and fears.

We are standing now at the crossroads,
Along that highway of life.
Where, oh where, will it lead us
As we travel the valleys of strife?

We know not whither we're going.
We know from whence we came.
The future is shrouded with vagueness,
But there's light at the end of the lane.

We've braved life's earliest battles
As through this school we have strolled.
We are better prepared to meet, by far,
Whatever the future holds.

We face the future unafraid,
We'll take each hill in our stride.
We'll not forget the lesson we've learned
As onward we continue to ride.

Thanks to you, ole Kiowa High
For the lesson you have taught.
"Quitters never win; winners never quit",
Will never bring us to naught.

We'll try to make you proud of us
As in life we travel on.
Remember us as we remember you,
But for now, it's "so long".

CLASS SONG

(Tune to "Thanks for the Memories")

Thanks for the memories of days at Kiowa High.
We hate to bid good-bye; to faculty, to classmates,
to every gal and guy.

We'll never forget!

Thanks for the memories of football games we've won
And State at Hutchinson. We went from rags to riches
And it really was such fun!

We'll never forget!

Many's the time we remember our faculty made the days brighter,
And made each task seem a bit lighter.

They've sure been swell-----We wish them well.

We've come all this way with you, but now our time is through.
We'll leave it all to you.

We'll go alone. We're on our own to build our life anew.

Awf'ly glad we met you. Cheerio and toodle-oo,
And thank you so much.

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1950

We have now come to one of the most important parts of the Class Day program, the prophecy. As we gaze into this magic mirror, we shall endeavor to find out for you, what each of us will be doing ten years hence, in 1960.

Tennyson once said, "As I dipped into the future, far as human eye could see, Saw the visions of the world and all the wonders that would happen to us." Watch closely now.

QUESTION: Mirror, mirror, on the wall, open up thine eyes and tell me what Verna Knorp will be doing in 1960?

MIRROR: Ah, in 1960, I see Verna is still looking, looking for a man, that is.

QUESTION: Mirror, mirror, on the wall, where's the fairest of them all? Oh no, it can't be; but yes, it's John Myers and Boyd Forester. Tell me, are they still the successful farmers of yesteryear?

MIRROR: No, they have given up the idea of farming and have started riding with Bob Wills and his Texas Play Boys.

QUESTION: Mirror, oh mirror, what has become of Jeannine Cohoe?

MIRROR: Jeannine has joined one of her senior classmates in a circus act. She does an act that thrills audiences in all the Midwest. This great act is being shot from a cannon. She's known as the "Silver Streak;" but because of a bad mishap one night, she is now known as "Gray Fizzle."

QUESTION: And now, mirror, oh mirror, what ever became of Maralyn Wetzel?

MIRROR: Maralyn is now a farmer's wife and has a house with all the modern conveniences. They seem to cause trouble, especially with her modern equipment, so she has hired a mechanic to keep it up.

QUESTION: Mirror on the wall, has Marjorie Gillig ever settled down?

MIRROR: Why yes, Marjorie is a very successful career woman. We find her in Japan teaching in grade school.

QUESTION: And now, mirror on the wall, tell us what has become of the famous redhead, Mary Lou Davis!

MIRROR: Mary Lou Davis' talented voice has finally been put to use. She's now the star of the "Inner Sanctum" program.

QUESTION: Mirror, oh mirror, I hear that Alvin Wright is a sheep herder. Is that correct?

MIRROR: Yes, Alvin is living on a ranch and is playing nursemaid to a baby, a baby lamb, of course!

QUESTION: Mirror, oh wise one, after ten years, is Mrs. Doris Keifer still the wonderful housewife she was in 1950?

MIRROR: Oh yes, even better! It seems that the 50-50 proposition has more than worked two ways. Ten years ago she hurried around to get the housework done and attend school, but now her time is spent helping Bob.

QUESTION: Gentle, kind mirror, do you have anything to report concerning Bennie Farney?

MIRROR: The upkeep for his pickup was too much for Bennie, so he decided that the best solution was to open the Benjamin Farney Repair & Brake Shop.

QUESTION: Mirror, can you tell me what has happened to Cletus Schwanz?

MIRROR: She is now Mrs. Dean Brinkley who, after many years, finished business college and succeeded in typing 100 words per minute.

QUESTION: Now, mirror, everyone would like to know what has happened to La Moine Schrock.

MIRROR: La Moine is still farming; but a few years ago, his '49 Ford, after seeing the garage mechanics so often, decided to give up and quit. After this catastrophe, La Moine started a junk yard.

QUESTION: Gentle mirror, we have heard so many rumors concerning Christine Wiley. Could you enlighten us?

MIRROR: Oh yes, Miss Christine finally achieved her life's goal—kindergarten teacher in Kiowa City Schools.

QUESTION: And now, mirror, we would like to know what ever became of Bob Sippel?

MIRROR: Well, sad to relate, after waiting a few years for his oil wells to come in, he finally decided he would have to make an honest living, so he started farming.

QUESTION: Mirror, oh mirror, who is fairest of them all?

MIRROR: Shirley Myers, of course. She has become the star of the Ringling Brothers' Circus. She does a feat more daring than Hoodoo himself. She is known as Madame R-A-G-G M-O-P-P, the fire eater.

QUESTION: Mirror, is Bill Tidwell still trying his luck at farming?

MIRROR: Yes, but it seems as if he may be having a little trouble.

What's the matter with your crop lately—greenbugs?

QUESTION: Dear and kind mirror on the wall, what has happened to Donna Mae Dotterer?

MIRROR: Donna Mae attended beauty school after graduating from high school and is now a small town operator.

QUESTION: Mirror on the wall, we also want to know what has happened to Carol Knox.

MIRROR: Carol Knox has gone a long way in her never tiring effort to persuade all species of the human race. She now has her own political party, known as the "Near Loony Party." She makes many personal appearances, far and wide.

QUESTION: Now, mirror, what is in store for Jack Prather?

MIRROR: After ten years, we find Jack has risen to the very top of his department at K. U. It has taken many long hours of hard work and concentration to reach this position which is so necessary and useful in this modern world of today, but Jack finally made Head Custodian.

QUESTION: Mirror, oh mirror, did Patsy Holmstrom continue with her musical career?

MIRROR: Oh no, she gave up music; in fact, she went to something quite different. She is now a famous foot doctor in Chicago.

QUESTION: And now, mirror, oh faithful one, what do you see in store for Donna Lee Sullivan?

MIRROR: Ah, I see Donna Lee all dressed in white, and she seems to be the superintendent of Wesley Hospital.

QUESTION: Mirror, oh mirror, has Bill Sippel finally succeeded in being the master photographer?

MIRROR: Oh, I see Mr. Bill Sippel is a great photographer and has his own studio in the suburbs of New York City.

QUESTION: Mirror, did Jim Stephens ever attain his goal of being a concert pianist?

MIRROR: Yes, Jim is now a very noted and accomplished pianist. He travels the world over making personal appearances for kings and queens.

QUESTION: Now, mirror, whom have we forgotten of the 1950 seniors?

MIRROR: Why, Joanne Wood. She has attended Kansas State College and majored in commercial art. She has become a very well known advertising agent.

QUESTION: Mirror, oh mirror, what has happened to the great American history teacher, Mr. Carman?

MIRROR: Mr. Carman is still trying to teach American history and seems to have found a way to wake and dismiss his enthusiastic students.

QUESTION: Mirror, does Mr. Blake, who is last but never forgotten, still teach science at K. H. S.?

MIRROR: Yes, but he is better known the world over as the "mad scientist," because of his amazing discovery that the light in the ice box really does go off when the door is shut.

And now, we have disposed of each and every one of the 1950 seniors; and we wish to thank you, mirror, for all you have done. Farewell now.
